

The English Meetings are events where you can meet new people, improve your English speech and listening skills, at the same time you have a nice time with your friends.

JCI Girona English Meetings are being celebrated in a wonderful restaurant located in the city center of Girona.

In order that all the people who attend every meeting could improve their English skills or acquire some new vocabulary.